PETER PAN WINS STANDARD STAKE IN FAST DRIVE

Electioneer Shows Class and Gives Keene Entry a Hard Run—Long Shots Capture Races at Gravesend.

(Special to The Evening World.) GRAYBEND RACE TRACK, June 10.—Electioneer is a great three-year-old. He came within a head of annexing the Standard Stakes today at a mile and a quarter, putting the champion Peter Pan to a furious drive to win. Had Electioneer had the benefit of a previous race and hardened to the trial of attempting to take the swift and game Peter Pan into camp to-day another story might be told as a result of the running of the Standard.

HIGHLANDERS AND BROOKLYNS LOSE; RAIN HALTS GIANTS' GAME

Detroit's Pounding Out Nine Runs in Fifth Inning and Drive Brockett from the Box.

(Special to The Evening World.) AMERICAN LEAGUE PARK, June 10.—Having won a game, Clark Griffith's Highlanders came out on the field to-day bent on capturing another from Detroit. The weather was made to order. Manager Jennings had regarded the Highlanders as easy marks, but as Griffith and his crowd surprised him he had Donovan and Killian out warming up before the game. There were 4,000 fans present when the bell rang.
